Grade: kindergarten

Hello, my name is Yoldani and I am 6 years old. I live in Dominican Republic. My father is a farmer and my mother is a housewife.

At home, I like to play. At church, I like to sing. I also like play ball. I want to be a baseball player.

Dominican Republic-CDC

This child development center serves in a mountainous area of Dominican Republic, where most families work in farming or on coffee plantations. Open five days a week, the center provides a variety of opportunities that support health in body, mind and spirit. Hot, nutritious lunches help to build strong bodies. Classes that teach reading and writing hone young minds. A caring, Christian environment and intentional spiritual formation encourage faith and lift spirits.
